FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE Nov. 13, 2012

Media availability with three-time Olympic medalist and reigning 100-meter world champion Carmelita Jeter at the Torrance-South Bay YMCA on Nov. 16

Reigning 100-meter world champion, Carmelita Jeter, most recently won gold, silver and bronze medals in the 4x100 relay, 100 and 200, respectively, at the London 2012 Olympic Games; and now, she's committed to giving back through the United States Olympic Committee's Team for Tomorrow program. As part of Team for Tomorrow, Jeter will visit the Torrance-South Bay YMCA on Friday, Nov. 16.

Beginning at 4 p.m., Jeter will share her personal story with young people and also speak about the importance of living an active and healthy lifestyle. Following her presentation, Jeter will lead the participants in various physical activities.

This event, which is open to the media, will take place at the Torrance-South Bay YMCA located at 2900 West Sepulveda Blvd. in Torrance, Calif. Jeter will be available for interviews at the conclusion of the program.

The USOC launched Team for Tomorrow in 2008 in partnership with U.S. Olympians and Paralympians to provide a vehicle through which U.S. athletes can offer their assistance and support to those in need around the world, as well as a means to continue spreading the Olympic Values of excellence, friendship and respect. Through this initiative, U.S. athletes offer assistance and support in the form of donations, volunteerism, disaster recovery support, advocacy and other contributions to communities.
